MEETING MINUTES ROADWAY TRAFFIC SAFETY COMMITTEE August 3, 2016

Meeting was called to order at 10:00 am

Present were: Ed Burman, Dona Walsh, Nat Strosberg, Izzy Assencoa, Scott Boothby, Joe Magnani

Also present was a guest - Rajitha Purimetla from DPW, Ron Gigliotti (Resident), Mike Connor (Resident)

Meeting Minutes were approved from the June 1, 2016 Meeting

Mike Connor a resident from Eliot Street spoke at the meeting about his concerns about the speed of traffic on Eliot Street. The committee discussed the crosswalks, stop signs. Mr. Connor would like more speed enforcement on Eliot Street. Police to do further evaluation and make recommendations to the committee.

Discussion about moving the speed limit signs on Cedar Street from their current locations at each end of Cedar Street. The committee voted to have the signs moved in closer on each side so that when vehicles turn onto Cedar they are not right on the corners but further in so people can see them better.

Discussion on Spring Street and No Parking, The committee voted that the signs should be replaced and put on posts correctly. The committee was also advised the police department is working on a new by-law that would allow the police department to tow. The committee agreed to wait on the signs until a new by-law is passed.

The committee also discussed the Oak and Oregon Intersection and what to do about the amount of accidents, More information will be discussed at the next meeting

A vote was taken to adjourn.

Meeting was adjourned at 11:20 am.
