

Pottery - Your Way!

The Ceramics Garage (www.theceramicsgarage.com), owned by Arti Bhola Goulatia, is a private clay art studio in Ashland, MA and offers pottery painting events and clay classes for all ages/ groups - friends, kids, moms, dads and grandparents, with no prior experience necessary! Art is my passion and I love sharing it with others. Let it enrich your life too.... Come and create something unique for yourself or a gift for someone special. Taught by a professional and nationally recognized artist.

Design Your Own Treasure

Make this holiday season special by creating your own set of personalized holiday Ornaments! Whether it's a gift for grandma, a near or dear one or for your own family, this fun and creative pottery painting event will help you make a treasure, something you'll cherish for years to come. This family event is open to all ages in which each participant will get a set of ceramic ornaments to decorate, stylize, color and paint. The ornaments, glazes, firing are all included— all you have to do is show up! Pieces will be ready before Christmas.
