Newsletters

Sign up for our digital newsletters

The town of Ashland offers a variety of email newsletters to residents. The Town Manager Newsletter, sent weekly on Fridays, covers town news, emergencies, construction updates, priority projects, meetings, local events, new hires, and community highlights. The Ashland Public Library Newsletter arrives every Monday, focusing on library events, programs, and resources. The Ashland Comprehensive Plan Steering Committee Newsletter provides updates on the Comprehensive Plan, including meeting summaries, What to expect at the next meeting, and upcoming events. For construction updates, there are separate newsletters for downtown and Route 126 construction projects, sent out sporadically. Community events are covered by the Community Events Newsletter, while The Corner Spot Newsletter narrows the focus to events at The Corner Spot. Finally, the Business Newsletter shares news about town businesses, such as new openings, success stories from the business incentive program, and business programs. Residents can easily subscribe to these newsletters on the town's website communications page.

Social Media

Did you know that you can stay updated on all things Ashland by following our official social media pages? Whether you're a long-time resident or new to town, these platforms are a fantastic way to keep in touch with what's happening in town:

Facebook and Instagram: Whether you prefer Facebook or Instagram, you can count on us to keep you in the loop. We post updates about the latest local news, events, and town updates on both platforms.

TikTok: By joining one of the most popular platforms, we are able to showcase our town through a different lens. From teaching about local government or promoting our local businesses, TikTok is a fun and light-hearted way to connect with our residents and the general public.
