

The signatures on these papers are all from Ashland residents. I believe that the builder had some from Framingham which has different zoning and bylaws.

All we ask is the board follow the zoning and bylaws that the town voted on and are in place at this time to make their decision.

All of us living here are hard working people that have lived here many years and raised our families here. There are some of us that have families that have bought their homes in the same area.

We followed the zoning and the bylaws when we have built additions on to our homes. We expect that everyone be treated the same.
